AN INVITATION TO AFTERNOON TEA WITH BR. JAMES

Br. James is an Anglican Religious Brother, who is a Counsellor at Christ Church Grammar School. His special interest is the Pilgrimage of Hope which is an organization concerned with serving the "poorest of the poor" in different parts of the world. His work is at the grassroots level and is very practical. Part of his mission is the involvement of young students, from several Australian schools, to travel as pilgrims with him to a variety of countries to work with the needy, the sick and the dying. Come and hear about his moving and inspiring work. His story is fascinating and uplifting.
